CHAIRMAN'S DESK

Social workers and visionaries like Shri. Rajanna Lingoo Polas, Shri. Balkrishna Sayanna Motado, Shri. Gangarambhau Mhaske with the blessings and encouragement from great social leader Mahatma Jyotiba Phule established Camp Education Society in 1885 to avail quality education to the wards of common man at affordable fees.

In the recent years, Dr. Arvind Telang & Shri. Walchand D. Sancheti strived for the spread of education through numerous schools and colleges. Today's global economy has made Technical and Management Knowledge and Education utmost important for any individual for survival and fast track career. Management education has multi faceted benefits at micro and macro level.

Camp Education Society acknowledging the importance of professional education in the post liberalization era has started MBA Programme. While offering quality professional education, the values and ethics imbibed have also been maintained keeping the fees affordable to the common.

Camp Education Society and its stakeholders have always given priority to the human values while marching on its way to 'Service to the Society' empowering the common man with the weapons of education and values. I am confident that state of art infrastructure along with quality inputs would surely contribute in developing quality human resource with values for the society.

The institute takes special efforts for placements of the graduating students. I take this opportunity to welcome you to the campus of Camp Education Society's Rasiklal M. Dhariwal Institute of Management. We are confident that quality infrastructure, able and dedicated teachers and staff would make your two years on campus mutually fruitful.

Best Wishes
Walchand D Sancheti

DIRECTOR'S DESK

There is always dearth of quality human resource. Pareto principle "The 80 - 20 Rule" applies to all walks of life and to be in the top twenty percent means a lot. A person can be in the twenty percent by various means but education makes a person to be in the twenty percent with right means.

In line with the mission of the Camp Education Society, we at Rasiklal M. Dhariwal Institute of Management strive to impart knowledge the learning way, with focus on inclusive development of every student associated with our institute. Foresighted vision and able leadership of Shri. W. D. Sancheti has lead to Camp Education Society's inclusive growth increasing the horizon from school education to the professional education in the field of Hotel Management and Masters in Business Administration.

Though in the formative years, we at CES's Rasiklal M Dhariwal Institute of Management have the confidence of providing the right environment for the overall development of budding managers who would be leading the society with values.

I warmly welcome you to be the part of our institute and be a part of this progressive venture. On behalf of our team, I assure you that your association with this B-School would be memorable moments for the lifetime.

Best Wishes
Dr. Bharat P. Kasar
