About SBPIM

S. B. Patil Institute of Management was established in 2009, nurtured and managed by Pimpri Chinchwad Education Trust. It is affiliated to Savitribai Phule Pune University and approved by AICTE. The world is moving at a very fast pace and India is making its mark in all spheres worldwide.

There is a dearth of efficient and skilled employees and entrepreneurs in today's market place.

SBPIM aims at bridging this gap by tapping all the available sources of knowledge so as to create a unique environment for developing and grooming the most talented minds for the corporate world. Management students at SBPIM are trained to inspire innovation and change in their Professional and Social life. The students are trained using special learning methods and are provided with opportunities to enrich their intelligent and emotional quotient with the help of activities and soft skill training sessions. This empowers them with special abilities to face the challenges in the corporate world. Special sessions are conducted in which extensive inputs from industry experts are provided to students through which they can choose a particular functional specialization. The entrepreneurship initiative helps the students and faculty to equip themselves for tomorrow's most promising enterprises.

Director's Message

It is my proud privilege to welcome you to PCET's S B Patil Institute of Management, Pune. Transformational leadership is the need of the hour for businesses facing disruptive forces, high competition and paradigm shifts in business models and regulatory norms. Keeping these competitive and disruptive scenarios in view, the Institute has in providing quality management education.

At SBPIM, our driving vision is to shape students into adept professionals through collaborative learning in value-based management, research, and entrepreneurship education. Since our establishment in 2009, our unwavering dedication lies in nurturing socially sensitive corporate leaders with a global perspective. We steadfastly endeavor to instill a sense of global awareness in our teaching, learning methodologies, entrepreneurship programs, and research initiatives across all academic disciplines.

In the past year, the teaching fraternity has faced its fair share of challenges, grappling with issues concerning syllabus execution and delivery. However, I am immensely proud of the SBPIM team's resilience as they rose to the occasion and successfully maintained a culture of experiential and collaborative learning. The pandemic, though daunting, has also brought to light the untapped potential within all stakeholders.

Over the recent years, SBPIM has undertaken numerous strategic initiatives to enrich teaching pedagogy and obtain accreditation from esteemed apex bodies. Our primary focus has been on holistic student development, achieved through exposure at the national level, fostering meaningful industry-institute interactions, and nurturing students at various stages of their academic journey. This approach empowers SBPIM students, enabling them to approach diverse situations with confidence and competence. Our esteemed faculty members are highly accomplished and dedicated individuals, bringing a wealth of diverse academic and corporate experiences to enrich the learning environment. Our institution not only prioritizes the overall development of our students but also places great importance on the continuous enrichment of our teachers' knowledge. Our faculty actively engages in augmenting their industry and business-oriented knowledge, which they enthusiastically share with students through various experiential learning activities.

Our relentless pursuit is to shape leaders and entrepreneurs who thrive in a multidimensional, multicultural, and intellectually stimulating academic environment over the two-year course. SBPIM places great emphasis on instilling core values such as commitment, honesty, integrity, self-discipline, fairness, firmness, and a collaborative spirit among all students. Beyond the boundaries of the curriculum, we encourage our students to explore and engage through industry connections, social integration programs, and gender equity initiatives. Such endeavors contribute to shaping responsible citizens with a strong professional ethos.

SBPIM offers a vibrant academic ecosystem, where contemporary management research of high quality blends seamlessly with impactful teaching methods. We remain committed to ensuring that our students, faculty, and staff have unfettered access to critical learning resources and operational support, particularly amid the ever-evolving challenges brought about by the Covid-19 pandemic. We have embraced innovation and creativity, resulting in new developments such as virtualizing various functions and upgrading technology across domains.

In conclusion, our students are inspired and guided by the core principles of hard work, integrity, excellence, and humility as they embark on this exciting journey. Together, we aim to make significant contributions to the business world, leaving a positive and lasting impact on society

MESSAGE FROM HEAD-ACADEMICS

“A Good Education is a foundation for a Better Future” - Elizabeth Warren

SBPIM offers a MBA program that covers the core functional areas of Management, which includes specializations in Marketing, Finance, Human Resources, Operations & Supply Chain, and Business Analytics. The institute adopts an Outcome-Based approach to ensure the holistic development of future managers and entrepreneurs. The teaching-learning and evaluation process focuses on inculcating value-based education and desired competencies for the corporate world, resulting in overall development.

The institute implements a Choice-Based Credit System (CBCS) and Grading System that adds a new dimension to the academic experience. The teaching-learning approach is an optimum blend of experiential, participative, and collaborative methods, which encourages students to organize and participate in curricular, co-curricular, and extra-curricular activities to develop leadership capabilities and an orientation towards ethics and sustainability.

SBPIM also offers domain-specific certification programs and personality grooming programs conducted by industry experts, which enhance students' domain skills and provide them with an edge in a competitive market. The institute's strong academic systems, qualified faculty members, and state-of-the-art infrastructure supported by ICT make the education process an enjoyable journey for students. I would like to extend an invitation for you to join the SBPIM family and embark on a journey to achieving your dream career.
